Weakened Vitality IMPOVERISHED BLOOD.

Read what Ayer's Sarsaparilla did for the Rev. Z. P. Wilds, a well-known city missionary in New York and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds:

"I was for many years a sufferer from boils and other eruptions of a like nature, caused by the impoverished state of my blood. My appetite was poor and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, by observation of the good it had done to others, I began taking it. My almost from the first dose; then my general health improved, and now it is excellent. I feel a hundred percent. stronger, and I attribute this result to Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised."

EWA FREE KINDERGARTEN

BUILDING PROVIDED BY THE PLANTATION COMPANY.

Excursion for the Opening Ceremonies—Formal Presentation of the Building to the Association.

An excursion was given to the directors of the Free Kindergarten Association by the directors of the Ewa Plantation Company on Saturday. Members of the Board of Education and editors of the daily papers were invited along. The occasion was the opening of a kindergarten on the plantation above named for which the company has erected a building and will pay the running expenses.

For the comfort of the party the directors' parlor car of the O.
R. & L. Co. was attached to the morning train. To give appropriate interest to the opening of the school, a class of ten children from the Japanese kindergarten in town, in charge of their teacher, Miss Kellogg, was among the excursionists. Dressed in kimono no two alike but each more variegated than a rainbow, this exhibition class presented a wonderfully picturesque appearance. It only took a slight hint to start them singing their school songs, and in every way they were as merry as kittens.

In the party were Dr. and Mrs.
C. M. Hyde, Prof. and Mrs. W.
D. Alexander, Dr. and Mrs. Loose of Iowa, U. S., J. B. Atherton and wife, Mrs. Fanny Stockbridge, Mrs. T. H. Hobron, Mrs. F. R.
Day, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs.
H. N. Castle, Mrs. O. H. Glick, Mrs. Selfridge, Miss Margaret Hopper, Miss Laurence, Miss Buckie, Miss Kellogg, W. A.
Bowen and wife, Mrs. Scott, wife of the editor of the Chicago Times-Herald, A. T. Atkinson of the Star, J. T. Stacker of the Advertiser and the BULLETIN's representative.

Arrived at Ewa station, the party was conducted across a neat new park, set out with young trees and flower beds, to the kindergarten schoolhouse. It is a neat wooden structure in cottage architecture, situated on the chapel compound and fronting in line with that edifice. Passing through a 6x9 porch the main room is entered, its dimensions being 24x30 and its furniture including little chairs for the infant pupils. A lanai on the right hand side, 12x24, opens from the main room by folding doors. Opposite the entrance is a door to the rear, which, besides two double windows in front, two single ones in rear and the same in the end, gives with the other openings mentioned abundance of air and light. The floor is painted a cardinal hue, with diagrams in black presumably to aid in class formations.

Chairs were provided for the party, and when all were seated the exercises began. For the occasion an upright piano from Mr.
Lowrie's house had been placed in the class room. It is to have an instrument of its own in the near future.

Mr. Lowrie delivered a brief opening address, expressing his great pleasure at meeting so many friends at the opening of the plantation kindergarten. He hoped that the result of this school might be so satisfactory that it would encourage other plantation companies to follow the example. He wished it understood at the outset, before the building was formally turned over, that the manager of the plantation company must be consulted in all financial affairs of the school, as well as have control, as to approval of the appointment of teachers. The matter of boarding outsiders on the plantation had always been a difficult one, and he thought that when possible teachers should be selected from among the people on the place. He thought the directors of the company deserved the thanks of the Association for providing such substantial quarters for the school.

Miss Clara Lowrie, daughter of the manager, played a piano selection with happy effect.

Mr. J. B. Atherton, on behalf of the Ewa Plantation Company, delivered an address turning over the building to the Free Kindergarten Association. He esteemed this a pleasant duty. That the conditions imposed by the manager were proper he did not question. He hoped this school was the beginning of many similar ones in the islands, but believed that the future of plantation kindergartens would depend upon the success of this one. The motive of the company in providing a building he did not wish to be considered altogether one of benevolence. There was a mercenary side to the act, and he expected that the shareholders would get larger dividends as a result of this departure. They had people there from darker countries, who were ignorant of some of the amenities arising from education. The manager of a plantation is at once a peace-maker and a taskmaster, and the less enlightened the laborer the more difficult is the duty of the manager to regulate the affairs of the company. He believed the establishment of that school would make better fathers and mothers of the plantation hands and give the company better laborers in consequence. In conclusion Mr. Atherton gave a statement, showing the cost of the building and furnishings to have been, within a few cents, $800, and the estimated cost of maintenance the first year $550, which was more likely to be a little under than over the mark. He then formally presented the building to the Association.

Mrs. Hyde, president of the Association, responded, expressing on behalf of that body her great pleasure in receiving the handsome gift. They had reason to believe that the example would be followed by other plantation companies. She trusted, however, that this Ewa kindergarten would always be first in excellence as it was in point of time.

Miss Scrimger, who is to teach the school, accepted the responsibility of the position in a few modest words, from which it was evident that she understood the nature of the work before her.

Mrs. H. N. Castle spoke of the work in Honolulu. They wanted the Ewa kindergarten to be a place where the children would grow intellectually and morally, as well as physically. It was not expected that the little ones were to sit still. Activity meant life and growth. Miss Soares of the Portuguese kindergarten in town had testified to the effect of the training upon the conduct of the children in their homes, which doubtless had a reflex influence upon their parents and elder brothers and sisters. It was known also that the influence of Chinese pupils was good in their homes, developing a family affection that was lacking in some classes of that nationality. The kindergarten gave children an opportunity to grow.

Miss Laurence, superintendent of the work, gave an address on the aims of the kindergarten. She compared the institution to a flower garden.

Miss Collins rendered a piano solo delightfully, and a bevy of assistant kindergartners sang part songs of the schools, Miss Laurence accompanying on the piano.

Miss Kellogg then put the Japanese class through kindergarten exercises, including motion songs and a sort of skipping dance.
These were highly entertaining.

Dr. Hyde closed the exercises with prayer.

Mr. Lowrie conducted the party through the sugar mill, showing them the entire process of making 96 degrees test sugar out of the cane. They were then carried in an observation car to the fields where cane cutting was being done, and by the same conveyance carried to the manager's residence and refreshed with a choice luncheon. Mrs. Lowrie displayed the most unfeigned pleasure at the opportunity of extending the hospi-talities of the plantation to the visitors.

Some of the party returned to town in the two o'clock train, the remainder waiting for the evening train, so as to further explore the vast estate.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Final Concert of the Graham-Marquardt Company Tonight.

The last concert to be given in Honolulu by Donald Graham and Mrs. Breitshuk Marquardt comes off at the Opera House this evening at 8 o'clock, and beyond doubt will prove a society success. In addition to the talented principals Miss Kate McGrew, H. M. Gillig, Lientenant Slayter, R. N., and James Wilder have volunteered and will appear in the following program:

ON SUNDAY LABOR.

Employers Largely to Blame for Much Work That is Done.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—I have read with interest the explanation given by the Attorney-General of the reasons which have induced the government to issue an order compelling steamship companies to obey the Sunday law and agree with all that he advances.
But I would suggest that the government go a step further and serve notice on some of the wholesale houses here which make a practice of working their clerks on Sunday. I do not refer to occasional instances where the presence of a steamer in port makes certain work necessary, but to those houses whose clerks have to report regularly for duty every Sunday morning. If it is against the law to unload a vessel on Sunday it is surely against the same law to pack goods behind closed iron doors, as is often done. Let the law be applied to all and give the poor clerk a chance to rest at least one day in the week. OBSERVER.

Farewell Presentation.

A large number of the officers and men of the National Guard met in the drill shed on Saturday evening and presented Colonel McLean with a gold watch, chain and locket on the occasion of his departure by the Doric. Presentation speeches were made by Captain T. B. Murray and Sergeant Stanmore, while Colonel McLean made a suitable reply. Remarks were also made by Captains Ziegler, McCarthy, Paul Smith and others and general good feeling prevailed.

At the Butte.

The first of the three matches arranged between the police and Company B. was shot on Saturday at the Kakaako range. The soldiers won by a score of 414 to 388.
In the match between Companies F and G, the regulars won by the score of 408 to 398.

LATE JAPANESE ITEMS

THE FUNERAL OF THE EMPRESS TO COST 800,000 YEN.

Attaches of the Japanese Consulate in Bombay Attacked by the Plague —Bank Manager Resigns.

The following additional items have been culled from exchanges brought by the Doric last Saturday:

The U. S. men-of-war Yorktown and Detroit, both from Shanghai, have arrived at Nagasaki.

Messages of condolence on the death of the Empress Dowager have been received by His Majesty from the Sovereigns and Presidents of all the Treaty Powers.

Mr. Yokura, Manager of the Bank of Japan, has tendered his resignation on account of age and it has been accepted by the Minister of Finance.

The authorities having decided to disburse 800,000 yen for the funeral of the Empress-Dowager, a bill for the same has been brought forward in the diet.

The Japanese Government contemplates reducing the number of troops stationed at Wei hai wei, pending the total payment of the indemnity by China, by one battalion of infantry by May next.

The plague in Bombay, which, with all its virulence, has not attacked foreign residents, seems, according to an official telegram received on the 14th, to have invaded the Japanese Consulate, and foreigners employed in the Con-sulate are suffering from the dread malady. A curious fact is that innumerable rats die from the plague every day.

JOHN D. HOLT RESIGNS.

Another Vacancy in the Office of the Postal Savings Bank.

This morning John D. Holt, for a number of years employed in the Postal Savings Bank, forwarded his resignation to the Postmaster-General in a communication of which the following is a copy:

To J. MORT OAT, Esq., Postmaster-General.

Dear Sir:—I hereby tender this my resignation as Clerk of the Postal Savings Bank, over which you are by law its manager.

Thanking you for the confidence reposed in me during the past, I remain,

Very respectfully yours,
JOHN D. HOLT.

February 8, 1897.

While Mr. Holt assigns no reason in the above letter for his resignation, it is understood among his friends that he feels that the government ignores the claim of Hawaiians in favor of its white supporters, and they point to the fact that since his stay in the Postal Savings Bank he has twice failed to receive that promotion which his long service merited, in both instances white men having been appointed over his head.

Visiting London Financiers.

Messrs. McCulloch and Weber, who dropped off the steamer Alameda to await the departure of the steamer Australia, are members of the London Stock Exchange, who, during their brief stay, are looking into the question of investments in the Hawaiian sugar industry. Through the courtesy of Mr. Lowrie, they joined the excursion party on Saturday, for the run through the fields and a visit to the great irrigation works at Ewa.

On today's Kinau the Pacific Hardware Co. have received a fresh supply of Prof. Henshaw's Platinotype and Sepia prints.
Send some of them to your friends for a New Year's reminder.

IN THE HIGHER COURTS

DAMAGE SUIT OF LEONARD VS.
MACLENNAN ON TRIAL.

Sentence of a Lottery Man Confirmed—Consent of Defendants in an Equity Suit for Partition.

Al Fat, who appealed for mitigation of sentence for maintaining lottery, had the sentence of the lower court—a fine of $100—confirmed by Judge Carter.

The Hawaiian jury, before Judge Carter, is trying Bipi for selling liquor at Maunaloa without license. E. P. Dole for the Republic; S. K. Kane for defendant.

H. Leonard vs. D. McLennan, damages, is on trial before Judge Perry by the following jury: J. G.
Spencer, Thos. Wall, B. F. Beardmore, H. G. Waity, B. W. Cathcart, C. R. Dement, W. Templeton, W. R. Sims, A. Larnach, O.
C. Swain, F. J. Turner and F. J.
Kruiger. The damages are claimed on account of alleged malpractice by defendant in treating plaintiff for rheumatism in the feet. Kinney & Ballou for plaintiff; P.
Neumann and Thurston & Stanley for defendant.

J. Q. Wood, attorney for defendants, has filed a motion to place Frank Telles vs. Albert and Sarah Trask on the calendar for the February term.

Certain of the defendants in John T. Baker vs. Young Hee and others have filed consent to a public sale of the lands involved.

Judge Carter has confirmed the administrator's sale of property belonging to the estate of the late Q. Fernandes, at public auction, to J. W. Pratt for $1600.

The Cricket Match.

The Honolulu cricket team won an easy victory over the team from the British cruiser Icarus on Saturday afternoon. The naval men went out for 31 runs, and the home team scored. Another inning was started, but there was not time to play it out. Captain Hatfield of the Honolulu team made a "hat"—that is, bowled down three wickets with three successive balls—for the second time in his record with the present Honolulu cricket club. The first time was in a match with H. B.
M. S. Champion's team some years ago. A. St. M. Mackintosh did not perform that feat, but he took more wickets than the captain.

At Emma Square.

The government band will give the regular concert at Emma square this evening with the following program:
